

CSG Government Solutions Names Tim Lenning Executive Vice-President

Chicago, Illinois – April 6, 2010

CSG Government Solutions, a recognized leader in providing public sector strategy, quality management and systems modernization services, today announced that Tim Lenning has been promoted to the title of Executive Vice-President. Mr. Lenning has also joined the company's board of directors.

Mr. Lenning is a long-time employee of CSG and has led the business development efforts of CSG Government Solutions since 2005. Under his leadership, the practice has gained a national reputation as a trusted advisor to state and local governments facing complex system modernization efforts. "CSG Government Solutions is experiencing tremendous growth. More and more government agencies look to us to help them through the challenges of deploying technology to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of the services they deliver," says John Walsworth, CEO of CSG. "Tim has built a team that is respected across the country as the most valuable partner available to overcome the challenges of major systems modernizations."

"The leadership and staff we have assembled at CSG Government Solutions consist of domain experts, technology specialists, and thought leaders who know what it's like to be in the customer's shoes," says Mr. Lenning. "Their abilities and willingness to go the extra mile for the benefit of our clients and the public are an inspiration to me."

CSG Government Solutions continues to increase its presence across the United States. The company deploys highly experienced teams and innovative proprietary methodologies to help governments modernize their most complex program enterprises. Its clients include the state governments of Arizona, Arkansas, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Vermont; the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services; and large municipal governments.
